

Welcome to the Canadian Council for the Advancement of Education

The Canadian Council for the Advancement of Education is the professional association for educational advancement professionals. CCAE is the primary source of information, professional development, connection and support for advancement professionals working at universities, colleges, institutes, independent schools, and cégeps across the country.

Resource Portal Login

Members are invited to log-in to view the CCAE Membership Directory, update information in the database, view CCAE documents and listservs, and more.